Luc H. Adeclat is a member of the firm's General Liability practice defending a broad range of insurance defense cases ranging from automobile accidents, negligent security, and premises liability. Luc is detail-oriented, motivated, and focused on achieving the best results for your case. He joined Conroy Simberg after a few years at a preeminent national injury firm where he litigated complex commercial cases, including contract disputes, professional malpractice, and other business related disputes, in various state and federal courts.

After earning a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology from the University of Florida, Luc remained in Gainesville and earned a Juris Doctor from The University of Florida Levin College of Law, graduating among the top of his class. While in law school, Luc was the Senior Research Editor of the University of Florida Journal of Law & Public Policy. Luc also earned book awards for the highest grades in Constitutional Law and Trial Practice.
