Mr. Mitchell practices in the first party property division of the Tampa office of Conroy Simberg, P.A. Practicing primarily in the areas of first and third party property loss disputes and property coverage matters, Bill represents a multitude of insurance carriers handling both litigated claims and pre-suit investigations across the state. In addition, Mr. Mitchell has experience handling business litigation, auto-glass replacement claims, construction defect litigation, and judgment collections. Bill is also a member of Conroy Simberg's Diversity & Inclusion Committee.

Prior to joining Conroy Simberg, Mr. Mitchell worked for the state-wide defense firm of Groelle & Salmon, P.A. Also, Mr. Mitchell previously spent fifteen years working for the United States Air Force in aerospace maintenance. During this time, he deployed over 700 days in support of the ongoing Global War on Terrorism.

During law school Mr. Mitchell clerked for the international firm of Hamilton, Miller, & Birthisel, LLP, where he gained valuable experience with first party property as well as a variety of maritime law issues. Also during law school, Mr. Mitchell served as a long-term, judicial clerk to the Honorable Gregory P. Holder, Circuit Court Judge in Hillsborough County, Florida.

Since moving to Tampa in 2007, Mr. Mitchell has become an engaged community leader and advocate for a number of causes including, cancer research and treatment, military veterans, and members of the Reserve Component of the Armed Forces.
