Natalie C. Fischer is a member of the firm's Construction Practice Group. She defends general contractors, subcontractors, and design professionals in complex construction defect litigation. She joined Conroy Simberg after a year and a half at a preeminent insurance defense practice in Broward County where she worked on complex commercial and general business matters. After earning a Bachelor of Science degree in Advertising from the College of Journalism and Communications at the University of Florida, Natalie then returned to South Florida where she earned a Juris Doctor from The Shepard Broad College of Law at Nova Southeastern University. She currently serves on the Florida Bar's Eminent Domain Committee and The Florida Bar's Journal/News Editorial Board.
