Neil Ambekar is a partner in the firm's Workers' Compensation practice group. He exclusively represents employers and carriers in workers' compensation matters, including appeals and subrogation issues. He is board certified in Workers' Compensation Law by the Florida Bar, and rated AV Preeminent by Martindale-Hubbell.

Neil is the chair of the Florida Bar's Workers' Compensation Rules Advisory Committee and a member of the Workers' Compensation Section Executive Council. He is the secretary of the Judge William Wieland Inn of Court, and a former chair of the OCBA Workers' Compensation Committee.

He has spoken at numerous conferences and seminars on workers' compensation issues, including the Florida Bar Workers' Compensation Forum, the OJCC Workers' Compensation Academy, and Orange County Bar Association events. He has also authored several articles on workers' compensation and related issues.

Neil obtained a bachelor's degree in Political Science from the University of Central Florida, and a Juris Doctor from Florida A&M University College of Law. Prior to law school, he worked as a paralegal for a statewide insurance defense firm handling workers' compensation matters, and he has over 15 years of workers' compensation defense experience.
