Representative Experience

- SCO Condominium Association v. DTO Development et. al.
 - Successfully represented alleged general contractor in a dispute regarding alleged construction defects at a large, multi-story condominium development in downtown Orlando, Florida. Multi-party case involving third-party claims against subcontractors and cross claims against alleged construction manager.
- Echelon Homes v. Carter Lumber
 - Represented plaintiff home builder in claims against a construction material supply company alleging that the defendant supply company knew property was stolen or embezzled by the client's employee. Michigan Supreme Court ruled that actual knowledge of converted or stolen property could be established by circumstantial evidence.
